

Applications for Admission

Whitman participates with a national group of more than 1,000 colleges that encourages the use of the Common App. The purpose of a Common App is to reduce repetition in completing forms when filing applications to several selective colleges. A student may pay application fees and submit the Common App online to multiple colleges. Whitman also accepts the Coalition Application.