

Alumni Support

30 percent of alumni made gifts to support the college during the previous academic year, placing Whitman among the leading colleges and universities in this category. Gifts to The Whitman Fund make an immediate impact on the college's areas of highest need and provide extraordinary experiences for students each year.