

Indigeneity, Race, and Ethnicity Studies 225 : Race, Class, Violence

In this course we will examine the complex relationships between race and class in contemporary structural modes of violence. Students will analyze various bodies of social theory (such as Marxism, Critical Race Theory, feminism, and postcolonial theory) and evaluate the ways they account for the interplay of race and class, of domination and exploitation. By considering the analytical category of race together with that of class (and vice versa), our goal is to strengthen each term's explanatory force and better account for the dynamism and complexities of racial and economic struggles.
