

Theater and Dance 130 : Beginning Modern Dance Practicum

This course will focus on dance as an art form whose primary medium, and source, is the human body. Generally, class will begin with a warm-up to stretch, strengthen, and engage one's center and progress to longer combinations that emphasize relationships to gravity, falling, and movement of the spine. Open to all students.

Credits 2